

BYLAWS OF IDAHO STATE PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL
TRAPSHOOTING ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE I

MEMBERS

Section 1. Identification of Members.

This corporation shall have members, all of whom shall be of one class. The membership of the corporation shall consist of all Idaho residents who are members in good standing of the Pacific International Trapshooting Association and who have paid all applicable dues required by said association. The corporation shall not issue membership certificates, shares of stocks, cards, or other instruments evidencing membership rights, voting rights or ownership rights.

Section 2. Annual and Other Meetings.

The annual membership meeting of the corporation shall be held at the time and place of the Idaho Pacific International Trapshooting Association State Shoot. Other membership meetings may be called by the President of the corporation, by the Board of Directors, or by a group of not less than ten percent (10%) of the current members in good standing of the corporation.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings.

Written notice of the time, place, and purpose of every special meeting of the membership shall be delivered personally or by mail not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting to each member of record entitled to vote, at his post office address appearing upon the records of the corporation or at such other address as shall be furnished in writing by him to the corporation for such purpose. Such further notice shall be given as may be required by law or by these Bylaws. No notice of the annual membership meeting shall be required.

ARTICLE II

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number.

The Board of Directors of the corporation shall consist of seven (7) persons.

Section 2. Meetings, Notice.

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such place either within or without the state of Idaho, as may from time to time be fixed by resolution of the board, or as may be specified in the call or in a waiver of notice thereof.

Section 3. Action by Consent.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all the directors, or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

Section 4. Powers of the Directors.

The Board of Directors shall have, in addition to such power as are herein expressly conferred on it, all such powers as may be exercised by the corporation, subject to the provisions of the statute, the Articles of Incorporation, and the Bylaws.

Section 5. Election, Term of Office.

The election of the Board of Directors shall occur annually at the annual membership meeting. Each director shall serve for a term of one (1) year. The term of office for all directors shall extend through completion of the Pacific International Trapshooting Association State Shoot, and the business related thereto, of the year following their election.

Section 6. Vacancies.

The Board of Directors of the corporation, by majority vote, shall fill any vacancy on said board that occurs during the interim between annual membership meetings. The replacement director shall be chosen from the general membership of the corporation.

Section 7. Duties.

The Board of Directors shall act as an executive committee and shall have full charge of all matters connected with business and welfare of the corporation.

Section 8. Committees.

The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate one (1) or more committees, which, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation. A majority of the members of each such committee shall be directors of the corporation; the remainder need not be directors.

ARTICLE III

OFFICERS

Section 1. Title and Election.

The officers of the corporation, who shall be chosen by the Board of Directors at its first meeting after each annual meeting of members, shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. The Board of Directors from time to time may elect one (1) or more vice-presidents, assistant secretaries, assistant treasurers, and such other officers and agents as it shall be necessary, and may define their powers and duties. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, except for the offices of president and secretary which cannot be held by the same person.

Section 2. Terms of Office.

The officers shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify.

Section 3. Resignations.

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and, unless specified therein. The acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 4. Duties of Officers May Be Delegated.

In case of the absence or disability of any officer of the corporation, or for any other reason that the board may deem sufficient, the board may delegate, for the time being, the powers or duties, or any of them, of such officer to any other officer, or to any director.

Section 5. Duties.

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings and to call a special meeting whenever he shall deem it necessary. The President shall have an equal vote on all matters, and shall perform such other and additional duties as are consistent with his office. It shall be the duty of the Vice-President to perform the duties of the President in his absence. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep an account of all the proceedings of the corporation and to receive and reply to all communications and to maintain files of the same. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive and hold all funds of the corporation and to disburse the same as he may be authorized to do by the Board of Directors or the President. He shall keep a correct record and detailed account of all monies received and disbursed by him.
